PROMISE Mentoring Program

PROVIDING REAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR MAXIMIZING INNOVATION AND SUCCESS THROUGH EDUCATION

We need your help! Volunteer to be a PROMISE mentor and share your experience with GED Plus students.

- Mentors are community members, at least 24 years of age, that can commit to one academic year of participation
- Mentors meet with GED Plus students twice per month for 3 hours per session
- Mentors receive training and support from GED Plus PROMISE program staff

The GED Plus PROMISE Mentoring program prepares GED Plus students for achievement in the workforce and educational environment. PROMISE matches volunteer mentors with GED Plus students to focus on relationship building, goal setting, and career exploration activities.
